Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA) 6-24-2005

The Division of Child Protection and Permanency (CP&P) joined the Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA) in August of 2004 as part of the Child Welfare Reform plan, to protect the interstate interests of children adopted under the Title IV-E program. ICAMA is the recognized means for assisting adoptive families in working through interstate issues and obtaining medical assistance.

We became recognized by the Association of Administrators of the Interstate Compact on Adoption (AAICAMA) in September of 2004. This brings the number of party states to 46 and one jurisdiction (Washington, D.C.).
